

PRHS students were honored this past Sunday at a gathering in the New Orleans Garden District.

Sarah Surla, Haley Koch, and Daisy Singletary are going to Valley Forge, PA April 6-9 as part of the Freedoms Foundation Leadership Conference.

These PRHS students will be meeting with student leaders from across the United States to discuss ways young people can influence and lead their communities.

The Foundation is honoring these amazing young women by giving them an “all expense” paid trip to PA and a day of touring Philadelphia and Valley Forge historic sites. They will be accompanied by students from Jesuit, Ursuline, and John Curtis high schools in New Orleans. Congratulations to our Rebel Scholars.

