THE SENIOR EVENT OF THE YEAR

After a two-year hiatus, the tradition continues as the Class of 2022 will return Orlando, Florida on the Senior Trip. The seniors have the opportunity to enjoy not only the Disney parks, but also the Universal theme parks.

Much time and effort is spent planning this trip to make it memorable, rewarding, and a safe experience for our seniors. A full itinerary is scheduled and coordinated by Mrs. Larsen, the Senior Sponsors, and our travel agent, Mrs. Susie Morris with Country Cruise and Travel.

WHO CAN ATTEND?

Any student who is classified as a senior in good standing for the Spring Semester, 2022 can attend. However, students with a history of serious academic, discipline problems and/or excessive absences, may be denied the opportunity to go on this trip.

Any student who has been suspended once during the 2021/2022 school session will not be allowed to apply to attend the trip until after meeting with the disciplinary committee in January, 2022. Students with more than one suspension or other serious disciplinary infractions will not be allowed to go on the trip.

This trip is limited to filling complete busses. It is based on a first to pay, first to go basis. Once one bus is filled, seniors will be placed on a waiting list.
