Sunday, Sept. 13 | 12 - 8 p.m. ET

NOTE: If you cannot access the links below, try pressing the control (Ctrl) button on your keyboard while clicking on the link.

On September 13, students will have an unparalleled chance to explore their options. More than 600 colleges and universities will be accessible that day at virtualcollegefairs.org to offer live and interactive Zoom sessions and more. Students everywhere can log in, drop in, and ask questions.

How-to Video and Guide

Now available is a new short video* that provides an overview of what students can find and do on virtualcollegefairs.org.

Bottom line: We encourage students to sign up and look around several days before the fair date. There are so many colleges and Zoom sessions to choose from. "My Schedule" (and the reminders that students add there ahead of time) is a great way to organize their fair experience.

List of Exhibiting Colleges

Lists of the colleges that will be exhibiting at each of NACAC's fall virtual college fairs (Sept. 13, Oct. 12, Oct. 18, and Nov. 8) are available online — students can search by college name; sort by A-Z or Z-A; and filter by location, majors, and other criteria. You also can register for the fair using this link.

Student Support

During each fair, students and families can attend a 30-minute NACAC Meet-Up to learn about financial aid, applying to college, and more. In addition, a chat button will connect students to volunteers from among the association's dedicated members who are available to offer college search advice.
